Have you attended the SEND Coffee and Chat Sessions?

Parents who have attended at least one SEND Coffee and Chat session said that:

- Have found it helpful to talk to other parents
- Useful session as part of transition to the Juniors
- Useful forum to share information and get support
- Get ideas from others about to help my child

If no, are there any specific reasons?

- Clashes with work schedule
- Haven't needed to attend yet

In response to the above:

The timing of the meetings have already been planned to take this into account to try to accommodate as many parents as possible. i.e. different days of the week, either in the morning or the afternoon.
